Malachi 2:17

You have wearied the LORD with your words; yet you say, "In what way have we wearied Him?" In that you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," or, "Where is the God of justice?"

Makes us Distracted

Malachi 2:17

You have wearied the LORD with your words; yet you say, “In what way have we wearied Him?” In that you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them,” or, “Where is the God of justice?”

Makes us Distracted

Being distracted with these “undeserved blessings” filled them with doubt and unbelief, and they grumbled that

“Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD”

Makes us Blind

Malachi 2:17

You have wearied the LORD with your words; yet you say, "In what way have we wearied Him?" In that you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," or, "Where is the God of justice?"

Makes us Blind

When we compare ourselves to others, we don't see God's characteristics as clearly.

Makes us Blind

“Where is the God of justice?”

This question shows that they have lost their understanding of what “The God of Justice” would give to them.

Makes God Weary

Malachi 2:17

You have wearied the LORD with your words; yet you say, "In what way have we wearied Him?" In that you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," or, "Where is the God of justice?"

Makes God Weary

“God is offended when people
accuse Him of injustice” -Boice

Makes God Weary

Even though God is weary of our resistance toward His truth & His work; He still gave us a way to be close to Him. A perfect manifestation of God, Jesus.

Makes God Weary

Malachi 3:1

Behold, I send a messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. And the LORD whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts.
